

NATIONAL SCOUTING
MUSEUM

Israeli Scouts to Perform at National Scouting Museum

WHAT: Twelve Israeli Scouts will perform native songs and dances at the National Scouting Museum.

WHEN: Friday, June 15, 2007
Noon – 12:30 p.m.

WHERE: National Scouting Museum
1329 W. Walnut Hill Lane
Irving, Texas

WHY: Each year the Israeli Scouting program selects approximately 12 of its top youth to travel across the globe performing and bringing a message of hope, friendship, and love to everyone.

Enjoy FREE admission every Monday at the National Scouting Museum!

For more information about the National Scouting Museum, please visit <http://BSAmuseum.org>